DESCRIPTION

The Department of Structural Engineering at UC San Diego is seeking one or more temporary lecturers to teach between one and three courses per quarter during the 2016/2017 academic year. We seek applicants in all content areas and are particularly interested in applicants with the expertise to teach undergraduate courses in mechanics, analysis, and design. Please see http://structures.ucsd.edu/academics/undergraduate-program/undergraduate-course-offerings and http://structures.ucsd.edu/academics/graduate-program/graduate-course-descriptions for a complete listing of the courses we offer.

The Jacobs School of Engineering and the Department of Structural Engineering at UC San Diego is committed to building an excellent, diverse and inclusive faculty, staff, and student body (http://www.jacobsschool.ucsd.edu/diversity/). Candidates with experience with or willingness to engage in activities that contribute to diversity and inclusion are especially encouraged to apply. Candidates must hold a master's or Ph.D. degree in Civil, Mechanical, Aerospace, or Structural Engineering, or a related field, and must have demonstrated evidence of effective teaching.

We encourage candidates to send applications as soon as possible. Applications will be reviewed on an ongoing basis, and candidates will be contacted as teaching needs arise. We expect to have ongoing needs throughout academic year 2016/2017. Review of applications will begin December 1, 2016 and continue until positions are filled.

To Apply: The application (curriculum vitae, including a complete publication list; a list of 2-4 professional references (contact information only) who can speak about the applicant's teaching experience and/or content knowledge; a cover letter stating the term(s), course(s) and number of courses you are applying to teach; a statement that describes prior teaching experience, provides evidence of effective teaching, and makes clear which courses the applicant is qualified to teach (providing student evaluations in this statement, or as a separate submission is strongly encouraged); a separate statement describing your past experience in activities that promote diversity and inclusion and/or plans to make future contributions; should be submitted electronically at: (https://apol-recruit.ucsd.edu/apply/JPF01281).
UCSD is an equal opportunity and affirmative action employer with a strong institutional commitment to the achievement of excellence and diversity among its faculty and staff. (see http://diversity.ucsd.edu). For further information about contributions to diversity statements, see: http://facultyequity.ucsd.edu/Faculty-Applicant-C2D-Info.asp
